Don't miss this brand new Musical version of the traditional story of Ebenezer Scrooge, a miserly old gentleman who has a passionate dislike towards Christmas and the general revelry of the season, characterized by his famous line 'Bah, Humbug'; told to you in a Musical format with lots of great numbers and dances.

Join the storey on Christmas Eve as he is visited by the ghost of his former business partner, Jacob Marley. Jacob is bound in chains, which he explains are his punishment for a life of cruelty to the poor. Scrooge is then visited by three ghosts that night. The first Ghost shows him his Christmases past, where we see that Scrooge wasn't always a bad man. The second Ghost shows him Christmas present. He sees the dismal condition of the life of the poor, including that of his clerk, who has a large family. Scrooge shows remorse at last, as well as pity. He is then visited by the third Ghost, of Christmas future, who shows him his grave, as well as the general public not caring about his death. He wakes up to find that it is Christmas Day, and sets about helping the poor, including his clerk, and enjoying life and celebrating Christmas.

From the creator of Peter Pan the Musical, this joyous, new show by Piers Chater Robinson has been brilliantly adapted by Chris Blackwood from the classic novel by Charles Dickens. With a cavalcade of colourful characters and a ghostly quartet of guardians, A Christmas Carol is the perfect way to get you into the Christmas spirit. Filled with joy, laughter and heartbreaking moments, this new version has something for everyone, both young and old...so don't miss it.
