This sparkling and fun filled pantomime by Leonard Caddy, originally produced by Hanham Players in 1989, is now updated and revised for 2016. Babes in the Wood is one of the top five most enjoyed pantomimes - based on an old English ballad from 1595; it tells the story of two children abandoned in the woods by their wicked uncle. By 1867 Robin Hood had joined the cast, rescuing the Babes.

This production follows the traditional telling with some fun diversions, new characters and lots of jokes and songs. Based around Nottingham Castle, it features the Sheriff and Maid Marion living at the castle, with the Babes (Betty and Bobby) arriving with Nurse Moppet. The wicked sheriff is encouraged by the Demon Imp - while Fairy Sparkle does his best to stop the Demon (while trying not to lose her wand). The day is saved by Robin and his men, the babes are reunited, and the Demon's plans are thwarted.

With lots of fun songs,
audience participation,
great sets and lighting
- this is a panto not to be missed.
