A chilling and mystifying study in mounting terror in which a small group of psychically receptive people are brought together in Hill House, a brooding, mid-Victorian mansion known as a place of evil and contained ill will. Led by the learned Dr Montague, who is conducting research into supernatural phenomena, the visitors have come to probe the secrets of the old house and draw forth the mysterious powers which it is alleged to possess - powers which have brought madness and death to those who have lived there in the past. Sinister and foreboding..

This classic 1959 novel has twice been made into feature film; latterly by Dreamworks in 1999 named "The Haunting" starring Liam Neeson and Catherine Zeta-Jones, and originally in 1963 by MGM.

Hanham Players bring to life on stage this hair-raising and nerve shattering thriller.
