A note from the director...

It's that time again! Pantomime! The time of year I personally love. Oh yes I do! It follows Christmas and for me is the most magical time of the year. This year's Pantomime is a very traditional version of Mother Goose by Ron Hall with plenty of audience participation and comedy which I am sure you will enjoy. I have had the pleasure, again this year, to direct as well as perform as the Dame, Mother (Rachel) Goose with a cast of experienced actors and some new to the concept, even some performing with us for the very first time.

Once again Hanham Players Youth group play a major and very important role in providing chorus and dancers and one very notable Fairy Queen to the production. Some of the group have appeared in previous pantomimes and some, in particular the younger ones, are very new to the stage.

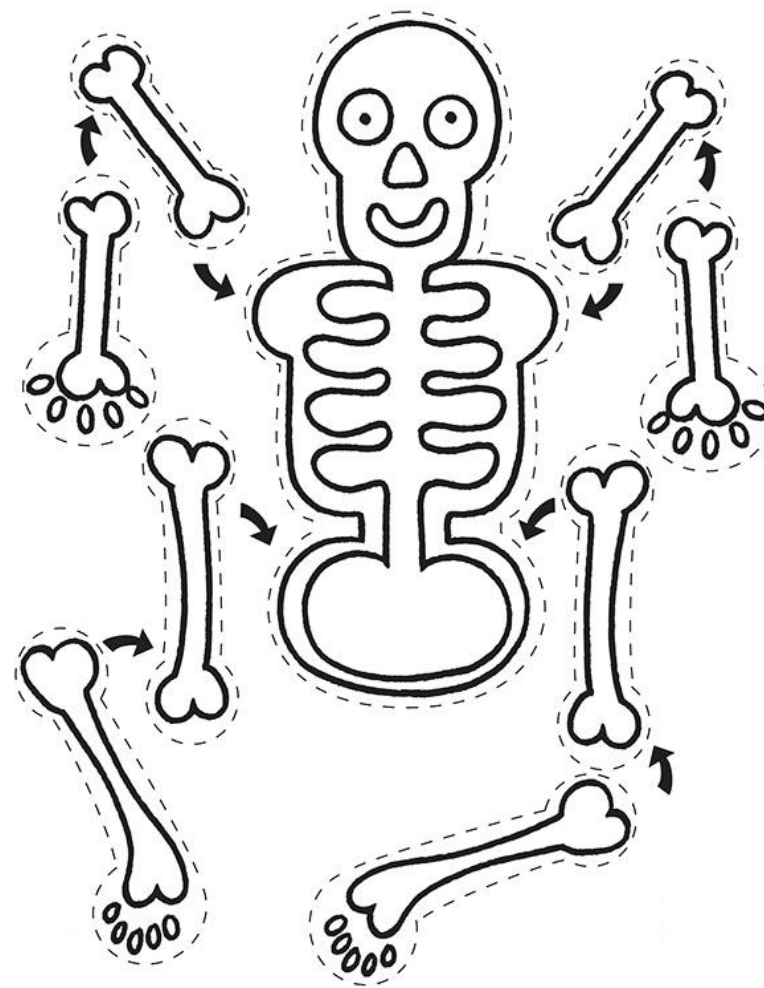

This year the Youth Group has been taken over and run very successfully by our own Charlotte Lawrence and I would like to thank her for all her help and dedication in getting everyone ready for this production, not an easy task and my job would be impossible without her, she even organised the children's costumes. I would also like to thank Charlotte and Kevin in their backstage capacity for their support and expert technical knowledge in set design/construction and lighting and sound to bring this production to the stage. Not forgetting their team of Andy, Ria and Ian you don't often see them (look out for the Lady Mary and the Demon Queen's Champion), but we couldn't do without their energy, good humour and commitment. Also a big thank you to our musicians Natalie and Owen for all their musical support and professionalism.

Finally a huge thank you to our patrons and supporters, without whom we could not perform. Please enjoy Mother Goose as much as we have in presenting it.

David Pascoe-Clark

More panto fun...

Cut out the shapes and ask a grown-up to help you pin-joint them together. Can you make your skeleton dance like one from the Manor House?

Interested in joining?

If you fancy having a go at acting, directing or working backstage in some capacity, do please come along on a Wednesday evening at 8pm. We are always looking for newcomers, the more the merrier and a full cast/crew means an exciting and vibrant production. All information regarding the club is on our website, or you can contact our club secretary.

Hanham Players Youth Group...

Our youth group is now a thriving and fun team. Our next production in May half term is a musical version of two tales from Roald Dahl's Revolting Rhymes. We have chosen Little Red Riding Hood and the Three Little Pigs. I'm sure if you're familiar with Roald Dahl's creations, you'll know that they will stray from the traditional tales and have lots of funny twists and gruesome additions. Check our website or Facebook pages for more information soon.
