

I'm Getting Murdered In The Morning

Written by Lee Mueller

Directed by Andrew Stowe

A Note From the Director

I'd like to thank everyone associated with this production, but a very special mention must go to the wonderful cast for all of their time and effort.

A big 'thank you,' goes to Kevin and the stage crew for setting and decorating the room, and to those who have prepared the food. The show would not be possible without any of them!

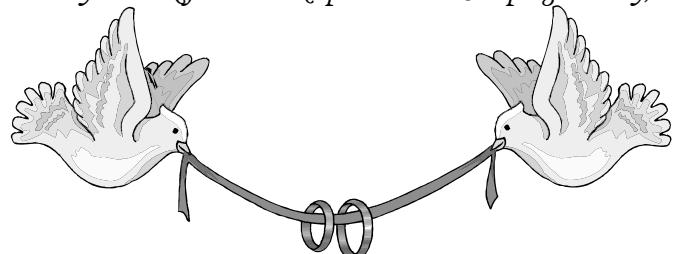

This is only my second time directing, and once again I have had a fantastic time. It's been great to watch the production come to life; from script to stage. I hope that you have as much fun watching the show, as we all had making it.

Remember – the show starts as soon as you enter; you are a character and everyone in the room is a suspect! The clues are all there and I wish you the best of luck!

We hope to welcome you back for our next production 'Sleeping Beauty,' in January.

Thanks

Andy
