A note from the director...

This pantomime lay half written on my shelf at home for over seven years, and after seeing it you may think it should have stayed there!

Love and thanks to my wife Liz for encouraging me to complete it.

Thanks to Margaret for all your help over the past few months.

Many thanks to Charlotte and Kevin for, once again, creating on stage exactly what was in my mind; it would have been impossible without you and your talented team backstage.

Thanks to all the cast, and parents of our younger members for your support throughout the rehearsal period.

Now please, sit back and enjoy our 2012 pantomime, 'Simple Simon'.

Forthcoming productions...

Our next production is A Midsummer Nights Dream by William Shakespeare in May; this play has been adapted and modernised to be set in a disco in the 60's; and a show taking a similar format to 'Rock 'n' Roll Diner' a musical evening set in a night club in the 80's, this show in September will take the format of an evening of cabaret including a supper.
