A special thank you for Bradley Stoke Radio for having us in their studio to promote our production.

A message from our directors...

Following the success of 'Rock and Roll Diner' (2011) and 'Pop goes the 80's' (2012) the players decided that they wanted to make a show celebrating the music and decade which was the 1970's.

From the start, we wanted to invite a fresh approach to the rehearsal room. We haven't directed this show in a 'traditional' sense, we would bounce around the rehearsal room asking for ideas and contributions from the cast; inviting them to create and devise bits of this show themselves through workshops and improvisation.

Wanting to use the cast's wealth of knowledge and experience; our aim was to make a bright, colourful and fun show with audience enjoyment and entertainment at its core. This production really has been a team effort and as a result we have a show that we as an ensemble have created together and are really proud of!

We would like to thank Andy, Ian, Ria, Kevin and Charlotte for all of the hard work and many hours they have spent making this show happen (whilst painting circles!) and for being thoroughly supportive of us in our directing debut at Hanham Players.

To our cast, we are very grateful and without whom this show would not be possible. Thank you for your enthusiasm and willingness to give our 'crazy' ideas a go, they never once questioned a note or direction and were never scared of jumping up to trying something out... even if it didn't always work. We would also like to thank Dave for supporting us throughout the show and helping us record the narration.

Finally, we would like to give special thanks to our Chairman Kirsty, who encouraged us to pitch our ideas for this show in the first place, for believing in us as Directors and for being with us every step of the way.

We speak on behalf of the cast and crew in welcoming you to Hanham Community Centre, and thank you for supporting Hanham players and Amateur Dramatics, we hope you have as much fun watching the show as we have had making it!

Many Thanks

Charlotte and Jon
